ABOUT US

OUR COMPANY

ShiftLogiQ is a Kenyan based company with a team of passionate individuals whose sole purpose is to accelerate ICT innovation through cutting-edge software design and on-demand technology consulting.

ShiftLogiQ provides end-to-end IT solutions and services to banking & financial, insurance, healthcare, retail, distribution and hospitality industries.

We are innovators in the digital space, offering solutions that result in performance breakthroughs and enabling our clients to make the best use of information technology and gain a competitive advantage in an ever-changing digital world.

We combine intelligence with technology and business acumen to spark new possibilities for the future. We are strong believers in the power of software and technology as tools for efficiency, improvement and social change.

Our organization is simple, clear and concise, our focus being website and web app development, mobile app development, ecommerce platforms, user experience and business process automation.
